OFFICE MEMORANDUM

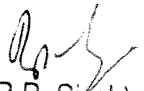

Section-4 of the Right to Information Act, 2005 sets out a practical regime of transparency in the working of the public authorities by way of disclosures of as much information to the public as possible, suo moto, so that the public may not have to resort to Section-6.

2. Instructions had been issued in the past for creation and operation of the project specific websites. However, in view of large number of projects, it is very difficult for general public to sift out topical information which would be of interest to them. Hence it is desirable to place such information on topical developments, decisions, orders, etc., which affect the general public. As the public have the right to know about the source/basis of the actions of the public authority like NHAI, disclosure of such information is essential.

3. A specific icon may be placed on NHAI website with the caption "Topical developments in projects of NHAI having public importance". CGM (Tech.) at HQ and CGM/RO may identify on the basis of various developments in implementation of the projects and propose the material (notes, letters, orders, etc.) for hosting on the website of NHAI. Developments likes change in alignment, change in scope, disputes raised by the concessionaire, court's intervention, etc. which impact the general public should be invariably put on the website. It may be noted that such identification of developments shall not be restrictive, rather it shall be liberal. Efforts should be to make available as much information as possible. To keep the site topical and current, old information should be periodically deleted.

4. IT Division may ensure opening of the icon with this caption on NHAI website. Electronics (HAM) Division at NHAI, HQ will maintain this data. CGM or RO may mail the material at email id deepaksaxena@nhai.org for hosting the information on NHAI website.

5. The above instructions shall be implemented forthwith and the first set of information shall be hosted within a week from the date of this O.M.
