CIRCULAR

Sub : Group Life Insurance for the employees of NHAI – req.

It is notified for information of all concerned that the National Highways Authority of India, as a welfare measure, has taken a Group Life Insurance Policy for all its officers and employees which has become effective from 21.7.2005. The salient features of the Group Life Insurance Scheme are as under:-

i) Coverage

All regular officers / employees of NHAI, officers on deputation to the Authority and all long-term contract employees, who are in active service of the Authority, are covered under the scheme.

ii) Sum Assured

All officers / employees who are drawing their salary in the pay scale of Rs. 6500-10500/- and above are covered for a sum of Rs. 5 lakh and the remaining categories for a sum of Rs. 4 lakh. All long-term contract employees, of and above the level of Asstt. Manager, are covered for a sum of Rs. 5 lakh and the remaining categories for a sum of Rs. 4 lakh.

For deputationists, the insurance cover will be reduced by the sum for which they are insured in their parent organization so as to ensure that the insurance cover extended to them does not exceed the ceiling of Rs. 5 or 4 lakh, as the case may be, applicable to regular employees of NHAI.

iii) Risk Covered

Death arising due to illness, accident and natural causes except suicide in the first year of the policy.

iv) Exclusions

Officers / employees on deputation to other organizations, short-term contract employees appointed through the placement agencies or directly by the Project Directors and those on leave on medical grounds for 180 days or more are not covered by the Group Life Insurance Policy. For keeping the membership intact, officers/employees on medical leave are required to join duty for a day before expiry of the ceiling of 180 days.

v) Termination of membership

Membership of the Policy shall be deemed to have terminated on the day one ceases to be an employee of the Authority due to attaining age of superannuation, repatriation to the parent organization, termination of contract and proceeding on leave on medical grounds exceeding 180 days.

vi) Enrolment

New employees joining the Authority shall be enrolled as a member from the date of their joining. Similarly, those returning from leave exceeding 180 days shall be enrolled as a member of the Policy subject to the employee furnishing a certificate of good health and his / her being found fit by the Doctor of the Insurance Company.

vii) Settlement of claim

In the unfortunate event of death, the nominee of the deceased employee shall be entitled to receive a sum of Rs. 5 lakh or 4 lakh, as the case may be, depending upon the scale of pay in which pay had been drawn. For this purpose, all officers / employees have to nominate a member of their family in the enclosed proforma who shall be entitled to receive the sum assured. The nominee of the deputationist officer shall be entitled to receive the sum assured minus the sum assured in his / her parent organization.

viii) Payment of premium

The Authority has decided to pay the premium to the Insurance Company without requiring any contribution from its officers / employees.
