POLICY MATTERS: TECHNICAL (9/2008)

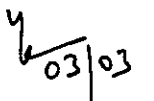

[Decision taken on Admn Division's F.No.11041/235/2007-Admn.]

Sub: Inviting suggestions/comments of State Authorities while finalizing the DPRs.

It has been observed that there is no formal arrangement for involving State Authorities in finalization of DPRs. This leads to a situation where objections are raised by the Authorities during the implementation of the work.

2. In view of the above, it has been decided that prior to finalization of DPRs, participation of State Authorities should be ensured in order to incorporate their views/comments in the project preparation. Accordingly, following actions are to be taken by the concerned Technical Divisions:

- (i) At the time of finalization of DPR, the concerned Chief Engineer of the National Highway Division of the State may be invited to participate in the discussion.
 - (ii) Prior to sending proposals to Government, the concerned Nodal Officer of the State may also be invited for discussion. A copy of the DPR may also be made available to the Nodal Officer.
3. This issues with the approval of the Competent Authority.
