No. 11041/21/2005-Admn.

October 25, 2005

POLICY CIRCULAR: ADMINISTRATION/FINANCE (110 /2005)

(Approval on Admn Division file No. 11041/21/2002-Admn.)

Sub: Procedure for referring the Arbitral Award to the Court of Law.

The procedure for referring the decisions of Dispute Review Expert (DRE)/Dispute Review Board (DRB) to Arbitration is contained in Policy Circular No.99/2005, according to which a Committee will review the decisions and recommend whether the decisions of the DRE/DRB is acceptable on merits. On the basis of the recommendations of the Committee, further action for referring to Arbitration will be taken.

In continuation of the above decision, it has now been decided that the award of the Arbitration Tribunal may also be referred to the same Committee for review before challenging the award in a Court of Law. In case, the Committee feels that the Arbitral Award is acceptable based on its merits, the same will be agreed by NHA without challenging in the Court.

All concerned may please note for information and strict compliance.

This issues with the approval of the Chairman.
