POLICY MATTERS: TECHNICAL (63 /2006)

(Decision taken on Administration Division's note No. 11041/21/2002-Admn dated 27.03.2006)

Sub : Informatory signboards at project site –reg

It has been decided to install retro-reflective signboards at project sites containing the information regarding section/stretch of National Highway to be four/six laned, length and target date of completion. An illustrative example of the board is indicated below for reference.

NHAI Emblem		GOI Emblem
National Highways Authority of India (Ministry of Shipping, Road Transport & Highways) Government of India
Four laning Kottakatta-Kurnool Km 135-211 of NH 7
Length	:	75 km
Completion by	:	December 2008

2. The signboard shall be retro reflective (of high intensity grade as per Ministry's specifications) with yellow background and black lettering. The information on each board shall be in one language only on the side facing the traffic. The boards would be placed in such a way that distance between two boards on the same side is approximately 10-20 km. Minimum three such boards (in Regional language, Hindi and English) shall be provided for each package on both sides. The boards on opposite sides shall be suitably staggered.

3. The siting of the boards shall be as per IRC 67 (Code of Practice for Road Signs).

4. The size of the board may be 1.8 m (vertical) x 1.6 m (horizontal).

5. The expenditure on putting up these boards may be met out of project contingencies.

6. All Project Directors are directed to install these signboard within 2 weeks and forward a compliance report.

7. This issues with the approval of Chairman, NHAI.
